MONTHLY REPORT

Vice President for Student Affairs Nicole Daly
July 2012

Submitted August 6, 2012

Project Updates:

- The “Little Things to Know Guide” has gone through several edits and is set to be distributed to freshmen electronically during the first week of school.
- Recruited twenty different students from all areas of campus life to make up a student advisory council for Athletics promotions.
- Been in contact with the Latin American Student Association, the Arab Student Association, Generation Citizen, NU Do Something, Strong Women Strong Girls, the Cape Verdean Student Association, the Asian Student Union, the Social Justice Resource Center, NU Calls, African Student Association, the Vietnamese Student Association, and the Portuguese Brazilian Association regarding diversity programming and advocacy for the coming year. We are planning on co-sponsoring a speaking engagement in Blackman Auditorium on Monday, November 5th with NU Mix and the Office of Institutional Diversity and Equity.
- Been in contact with several of our community service student organizations (Peace through Play, Strong Women Strong Girls, Generation Citizen, Girls’ LEAP, Science Club for Girls, Math STARS) who are involved in schools, and therefore our community. Working with administrators in City & Community Relations to provide funding and support for these organizations.
- Have been in contact with student leaders and administrators from OPEN and UHCS about creating consent programming.

Scheduled Meetings:

- Val Randall-Lee, Associate Dean for Student Development
- John Tobin, Vice President for City & Community Relations
- Lisa Commendatore, Director of New Student Orientation & Parent and Family Programs
- Mike Fitzgerald, Community Liaison (Mission Hill area)
- Boston Off-Campus Student Coalition
- City & Community Affairs Staff Meeting
- Mary Wegmann, Director of OSCCR
- Chris Marshall, Assistant Director for Marketing & Sponsorships (Athletics)
- George Gardner, Senior Associate Athletic Director External Affairs
- Jace Kirschner, Assistant Director of Campus Activities

Individual Concerns:

- Met with Tom Shepard, the Co-Chair of the Student Conduct Board, regarding creating a feedback loop between the Student Conduct Board and SGA. Plans to help with recruitment of Board members and creating some sort of programming for.
- Met with students who are planning “Mental Health Awareness Week” this fall and put them in contact with University administrators to help provide support for their mission and programming.
- Met with the Arab Student Association, and passed on concerns regarding the event planning process and contracts with outside vendors to President Petrin.
- Met with members of NU PiC, a newly recognized student organization, who are interested in finding ways to display their student art on campus.
