MONTHLY REPORT

Vice President for Student Affairs Nicole Daly
March 2013

Submitted April 4, 2013

Project Updates:

- The @iamNORTHEASTERN twitter handle that was created to promote school spirit has gained 50+ followers since the time we reactivated the account.
- The Student Affairs committee is looking into the needs of our club athletes and has plans to distribute a survey next school year.
- We have begun discussions around the planning process for Red & Black Day 2013.
- There is an “Empower Breakfast” planned for Sunday, April 21st as a follow up to the conference held in January. I have been in contact with several administrators about diversity initiatives on campus next year.
- Been in contact with the International Student Scholar Institute (ISSI) about assisting with the orientation for international students next fall.
- Working with the Center for Spirituality, Dialogue & Service (CSDS) to develop a policy manual for student organizations under its oversight.

Events Attended:

- PAAC (Pan Asian-American Council) Games
- Conflict, Civility, Respect and Peace Series: I am Northeastern
- Relay for Life

Scheduled Meetings:

- Chong Kim, Program Manager in the Center for Spirituality, Dialogue, and Service
- I am Northeastern Task Force (Val Randall-Lee, Douglass Lee, Chiquita Baylor, Gail Olyha, Kara Curcio)
- Val Randall-Lee, Associate Dean for Student Development

Individual Concerns:

- Helped two Italian international students, Michele Bellini and Veronica Baroni, present their ideas and proposal to create a virtual orientation experience for international students to appropriate administrators.
- Along with the Community Ambassadors I have been interviewing candidates for the newly created “Program Coordinator” position in Off-Campus Student Services.
