MONTHLY REPORT

Vice President for Student Affairs Nicole Daly
November 2012

Submitted November 28, 2012

Project Updates:

• The “I am Northeastern” Task Force is in the process of writing a mission statement and identifying a set of key values. Once the committee has made the decision, the Student Affairs Committee will move forward with drafting the “Expectations of Community Members” (as discussed in the October Report).
• Helped Off-Campus Student Services draft a survey to evaluate student experiences in their neighborhoods, with their realtor, and with their landlord. This survey is in replace of the previous “Landlord Evaluation Survey”.
• Participated in “Mental Health Awareness Week” (11/12/12-11/16/12) and engaged Association members in the weeks programs
• NU Starts received recognition as a student organization. They are planning a Kick-Off Event and other welcome back festivities for the 431 N.U.in students that begin their Northeastern academic careers in January 2013.

Events Attended:

• Guest Co-Host on WRBB Radio’s “The News” on Tuesday, November 6th
• Hurricane Sandy Relief Effort Vigil in the Sacred Space
• Tim Wise Speaking Engagement

Scheduled Meetings:

• Val Randall-Lee, Associate Dean for Student Development
• I am Northeastern Task Force (Val Randall-Lee, Douglass Lee, Chiquita Baylor, Chris McGill, Chris Marshall, Gail Olyha, Richard O’Bryant, Chong Kim, Kara Curcio)
• Bob Jose, Associate Dean for Cultural and Residential Life
• Lisa Commendatore, Director of New Student Orientation/Parent and Family Programs
• Gail Olyha, Associate Dean/Director for Off-Campus Student Services & the Community Ambassadors
• Northeastern University Interfaith Council

Individual Concerns:

• After the Hurricane Sandy Vigil, I connected students with administrators to discuss Northeastern’s involvement in relief efforts and acted as a point person amongst students who were interested in organizing for the cause.
